

FREE MUGRABY

On Friday, August 8, 2003, lawyer Dr. Muhamad Mugarby was arrested for “impersonating a lawyer” by the Office of Central Criminal Investigation.

Dr. Mugarby is a graduate of the Lebanese University School of Law and holds numerous Masters and Doctorates from the world’s leading Law Universities. He has been practicing law in Lebanon for over 40 years.

How can he be accused of “impersonating a lawyer”?

He has stood up for and defended the rights of anyone who has suffered injustice and the effects of corruption. Among them are hundreds of political prisoners, rightful landowners of Beirut Central District, farmers in the South of Lebanon, workers, and student demonstrators. He has also launched many human and civil rights campaigns such as the Campaign for the Integrity in the Judiciary.

Lawyer Mugarby believes in the importance of continuous personal and collective action to improve the situation in our country. Today, he is proudly paying the price of his convictions and his faith in our country and our society because he wants change and believes it is possible.

What about you?

Do you want to continue to feel helpless, irrelevant, and marginal?

Do you want change?

Do you believe in the value of your opinion as a Lebanese citizen?
YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Effect change. Act now. Demand Dr. Mugarby’s release.
CALL YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS.
